STATEMENT OF FRANK ALLAN HARRIS

Frank Allan Harris hereby states under penalty of perjury:

1. My name is Frank Allan Harris. I reside in Old Hickory, Tennessee, which is a suburb of Nashville, Tennessee. I am President and sole stockholder of Impact International, a manufacturer of lubricants, and I am also involved with various other business interests. I served as Deacon of my church for many years and presently am in charge of my church's choir.

2. I have known Mack Bramlett since 1950-51 when we were in the sixth grade together at Falkville Junior High School, Falkville, Alabama, which is located just south of Decatur, Alabama. When we were much younger we worked together in the fields picking and chopping cotton. I currently see him every month or two while traveling through Decatur on my way to my wife's home in Montgomery.

who had honestly graded their papers and had not cheated. Apparently all the other students made sure that they had all the correct answers. Unbeknownst to us, the teacher had graded the papers before he handed them out to the class. Mack would not cheat then and I know he would not do that now. He has inner strength and beliefs which have stayed with him throughout his life. He tells the truth -- he does not lie.

STATEMENT OF RICKY PATTON

Ricky Patton hereby states under penalty of perjury:

1. My name is Ricky Patton. I am an African-American. From approximately October 1982 to May 1983, I worked full-time as an account executive/announcer for Station WDRM(FM), Decatur, Alabama. I found out about the opening through Nat Tate, Sr., who I knew and who was WDRM's sales manager at the time. I completed and submitted a job application and was hired. I left WDRM in 1983 to take a position with a radio station in Huntsville, Alabama.

2. Since I left WDRM in 1983, I have worked off and on for radio stations in the Huntsville market. I have kept in regular touch with Mack Bramlett, WDRM's general manager during this time. On average, about once a month we have talked "radio talk" -- for example, marketing strategy, developments in the radio industry.

3. Since 1992, I have worked on an as needed, fill-in basis for WDRM. I am currently employed in Huntsville as a ~~physical~~ ^{MASSAGE} therapist during the day and by a night club as a disc jockey in the evening.

4. Based upon my experience working at WDRM, and in particular my contact with Mack Bramlett, I have never seen or heard of any discriminatory conduct at WDRM. Employees at the stations, Black or White, are treated as family. In fact, I have recommended WDRM to my African-American friends who are looking to "cross over" to a different format because of the fair shake minorities get at the station. In my experience, Mr. Bramlett's only concern is whether or not you can do the job.

5. I know Mack Bramlett to be an honest man. When he tells me something I believe it -- he does not lie.

Dated this 11 day of February, 1993.

STATEMENT OF B. LYNN LAYTON

B. Lynn Layton hereby states under penalty of perjury:

1. My name is B. Lynn Layton. I am sole owner and President of Lynn Layton Chevrolet, an automobile agency which sells Chevrolets, Oldsmobiles and Cadillacs in Decatur, Alabama. I am also active in various community organizations, including the Rotary Club and was on the Board of the Chamber of Commerce in the mid-1980's.

2. I have known Mack Bramlett for approximately ten years. I meet with him as many as three or four times a month concerning advertising and promotions on his radio station. Most everybody active in the community knows him in Decatur. He is civic minded; anytime there is a community event he is there donating his stations' time and services. I have never heard anything but praise for Mack Bramlett's honesty and integrity. He has never been associated with anything but projects which reflect his integrity.

3. Personally, I couldn't think more highly of anyone. He is straight up. I never have had a written contract with Mack Bramlett. If he says something, that's the way it is. In trade deals, when a product is provided in exchange for future time, you have to be confident that the radio station will provide the agreed-upon time. I don't trade with any radio stations but Mack Bramlett's.

4. In the community, I can't pinpoint specific conversations, but you get to know the reputation of a man when you're active in a small community. I have been present at various times when Mack's name came up in conversations. His reputation among civic-minded business people in Decatur is that he is a man you can trust -- he is honest, a man of integrity.

STATEMENT OF HUNDLEY BATTS, SR.

Hundley Batts, Sr. hereby states under penalty of perjury:

1. My name is Hundley Batts, Sr. I am an African-American. I was born and raised in Huntsville, Alabama, and still reside there. I am attaching to this Statement a copy of my resume setting forth my background and experience. In addition to the activities set forth in my resume, I serve as a Commissioner of the Huntsville/Madison County Railroad Authority and am a former Chairman of the Volunteer Center, an agency that handles applications for all non-profit organizations.

the bank. I see Mack at least once a month and talk to him more frequently on the telephone. I rely upon him as an advisor/mentor. The operation of my station is based on Mack's philosophy. Before he worked with me to "Mackinize my station," my station was not successful.

5. As I said, Mack is always willing to lend a helping hand. When I wanted to hire one of his people for my radio station to work on my coverage of small college football games for which I have a network, Mack allowed her to work for me and told me "any way we can help you --let us know." Mack has loaned equipment to competitors in the market who have no interest in Mack succeeding -- he is selfless. For instance, the number two station in the market needed a part for its station so it could stay on the air. Mack loaned the station the part. This radio station keeps knocking Mack's station -- a country competitor -- on the air.

6. Mack does not discriminate. He has done more for Black broadcasters in the market than anyone I know. I know he has been threatened by the Ku Klux Klan because he doesn't subscribe to their beliefs.

STATEMENT OF JULIAN D. BUTLER

Julian D. Butler hereby states under penalty of perjury:

1. My name is Julian D. Butler. I reside in Huntsville, Alabama. I have lived in Huntsville for twenty-seven years and have been engaged in the private practice of law in Huntsville for the past twenty-seven years. I am presently a partner in the law firm of Sirote & Permutt, P.C.

2. I have served as County Attorney for Madison County, Alabama, for the past sixteen years. I served as Chairman of the Center for Public Law and Service at the University of Alabama, and I am presently a member of the Chancellor's Public Affairs Advisory Group. I represent America's Counties on the Advisory Board of the State and Local Legal Center in Washington, D.C. I have served as Chairman of the Leadership Huntsville/Madison County Program of the Huntsville/Madison County Chamber of Commerce and in leadership positions with a variety of other civic, charitable and political organizations.

3. I have been acquainted with Mack Bramlett since February 1988, when I represented his radio station. I have never represented Mack personally. Over a period of three years I was in contact with Mack on an average of at least once a week. Ours is not a sterile professional relationship. Mack's honesty and integrity are as high as anyone I have ever dealt with. In the course of my representation, when it would have been to Mack's advantage to shade the truth, he never suggested that we do so. He was always open with the facts, good or bad.

4. I have heard people in the community discuss Mack and his reputation for honesty and integrity. His reputation is outstanding, both with respect to his ability as an operator of a radio station and his honesty and integrity as a local businessman.
